Information for Authors

Paideuma. Mitteilungen zur Kulturkunde is the official publication of the Frobenius-Institut at the Goethe University (Frankfurt am Main), and is a peer-reviewed journal. Founded in 1938 by Leo Frobenius and edited with support from the Frobenius-Gesellschaft, Paideuma has published articles on African societies and history, as well as on other regions and topics of general theoretical interest. In recent years Paideuma has widened its scope to focus also on Eastern Indonesia and Oceania.

Manuscripts in English, German or French, and of not more than 40 000 characters (without special characters), are welcome any time. They should be submitted as hard copy and a document file on a DOS/WINDOWS formatted disk, or as an attachment to an email. Formatting and the use of tabs and spaces should be kept to an absolute minimum. Citations, references, footnotes and bibliographies should follow the conventions used in this issue of Paideuma. Submissions are reviewed anonymously by the academic advisory board. Upon acceptance of an article, provisional page proofs are sent to the author for correction within seven days. Authors receive 25 free offprints of their articles upon publication.
